

Prize Fellowship in Probability and its connections,
Prob-L@B, Bath

The University of Bath is celebrating its 50th birthday by offering an expansive number of Prize Fellowships.

Prize fellowships are two year postdoctoral fellowships which lead into a tenure track assistant professorship (called a Lectureship in the UK). The probability laboratory (<http://www.bath.ac.uk/research/centres/probability-laboratory/>) at the Department of Mathematical Sciences invites candidates for consideration.
