Subject: [Random] PhD / PostDoc position in Bochum

Ph.D. or PostDoc position at Ruhr University
Bochum (Germany)

The Faculty of Mathematics at the Ruhr University
Bochum has an opening for a

Ph.D. position (salary scale TV-L E 13, 75%; including social benefits)

or a

PostDoc position (salary scale TV-L E 13, 100%;
including social benefits)

in probability theory starting October 1st 2016.

Candidates should have completed (or are about to complete) a M.Sc. degree (or equivalent) or a Ph.D. in mathematics, in particular in probability theory or a closely related field. The positions carry a modest teaching load (3h per week for the Ph.D. position and 4h per week for the PostDoc position) which, in case of foreign applicants, can be offered in English.
