

Subject: Postdoc Positions, Applied Mathematics, Columbia Univ

From: Kui Ren <kr2002@columbia.edu>

Date: November 03, 2020

The Program in Applied Mathematics (<https://appliedmath.apam.columbia.edu>) at Columbia University invites applications for two postdoctoral positions in applied mathematics

(broadly defined) starting Fall 2021. The positions are partially supported by an Applied Mathematics Research Training Group (RTG)

grant from the National Science Foundation. The postdoctoral positions are appointed annually and can be renewed up to a total of three years. The appointments include teaching duties with an expected

teaching load of one course per semester.

Applications should be submitted through mathjobs.org at:

<https://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/list/16622>

For full consideration applicants are encouraged to submit all materials before December 1, 2020.

Following the rules of the National Science Foundation, the postdoctoral positions are restricted to US citizens, nationals, and permanent residents.
