Dear colleagues,

We are happy to announce the 7th edition of the fall school "Topics in Complex Dynamics", taking place at Universitat de Barcelona during October 9-13, 2017. Information about previous editions can be found at: <http://www.maia.ub.es/holodyn>.

Following the usual format, there will be 3 courses of 4.5 hours each.

These year's courses will be

(1) Inner functions, Artur Nicolau, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Bellaterra, Catalonia

(2) A survey of dynamics for functions in the Eremenko-

Lyubich class,
David Sixmith, University of Liverpool, United Kingdom

(3) Random complex dynamics, Anna Zdunik, Institute of Mathematics,
University of Warsaw, Poland

The courses are addressed to graduate students and postdocs although,
of course, everybody interested is most welcome to attend. In the afternoons, participants are encouraged to give 30 minutes presentations about their work, even if it is work in progress.

Some partial funding will be available for the registration fee and accommodation. The conference webpage is http:// www.gsd.uab.cat/tcd2017, where information will be updated as it becomes available. A second announcement will be made when registration opens.

Please forward this message to anybody who you believe might be interested.

Kind regards,
Nuria Fagella, Toni Garíjo and Xavier Jarque
