

 PostDoc at Luxembourg University in stochastic calculus and applications **

Opening of a post-doc position Luxembourg University, in the large domain of stochastic analysis and applications.

The first possible starting date is March 1st, 2020. The length of the contract is two years, extendable up to 5 years.

The deadline for applications is January 31, 2020.

All information, together with the online application form, can be found here:

<http://emea3.mrted.ly/2db95>

Please do not hesitate to share the news of this opportunity with potentially interested candidates.