ANNOUNCEMENT: Financial support available for non-French students to prepare a Ph.D. in mathematics in Paris

Location: Laboratoire Jacques-Louis Lions, Univ. Pierre et Marie Curie (Paris 6), 4 Place Jussieu, 75252 Paris, FRANCE.

Adviser: Philippe LeFloch Blog: http:// philippelefloch.org

Area of interest: Mathematical methods for nonlinear hyperbolic systems of conservation laws and compressible fluid dynamics, including the mathematical theory of shock waves, the dynamics of multi-fluid interfaces, the dynamics of relativistic fluids, etc.

Requirement: a master diploma (M2) in mathematics or in applied mathematics obtained in 2016. Knowledge of English or French.

If a master student is interested in preparing a Ph.D. in Paris from September 2016, he should contact as soon as possible
