To Master's students in mathematics.

The advert for a funded studentship in pure mathematics is live

https://www.ncl.ac.uk/postgraduate/funding/sources/allstudents/msp037.html

The advert will also appear on jobs.ac.uk.

Value of award: 100% of home tuition fees paid and annual living expenses of £15,609.
The School will consider covering the international fees for outstanding students and where possible.

Start date and duration: 42 months from September 2021.

Application closing date 28 February 2021.

A more detailed description of the available projects can be found at the following link:

https://www.ncl.ac.uk/maths-physics/postgraduate/research-projects/pure/

Successful participants will have the opportunity to undertake teaching-related activities supported by training workshops.

Applicants are encouraged to contact the supervisors of the projects they are interested in for more information.

Sponsor: EPSRC / School of Mathematics, Statistics and Physics